

Black History Month 2019 - Instagram Posts

CARTER G. WOODSON is known as the “Father of Black History” and is the creator of Black History Month. Woodson authored numerous scholarly books on the positive contributions of black Americans to the development of America, and also published many magazine articles analyzing the contributions and role of black Americans.

 GOODWIN

Physician CHARLES RICHARD DREW is known for establishing the first major blood bank. During World War 2, Dr. Drew worked with the American Red Cross to create large-scale blood banks that are credited with saving the lives of thousands of Allied forces.

 GOODWIN

MACON BOLLING ALLEN is believed to be both the first African American licensed to practice law and to hold a judicial position in the United States. Allen passed the bar exam in Maine in 1844 and became a Massachusetts Justice of the Peace in 1848.

 GOODWIN

JACKIE ROBINSON is the only player to have their number retired across all of Major League Baseball. The first African American to play major league baseball, Robinson’s number 42 was retired 50 years following his historic entry into the sport (April 15, 1947).

 GOODWIN

SHONDA RHIMES was the first black woman to create and to executive produce a Top 10 Network show. Rhimes is the brains behind the popular Grey’s Anatomy, Scandal and How to Get Away with Murder.

 GOODWIN

QUINCY JONES is the most nominated artist in Grammy history. Over the course of his career, Jones has received 79 nominations and 27 awards. He is the founder of the Institute for Black American Music.

 GOODWIN

Black History Month 2019 - Twitter Posts

CARTER G. WOODSON is known as the “Father of Black History” and is the creator of Black History Month. Woodson authored numerous scholarly books on the positive contributions of black Americans to the development of America, and also published many magazine articles analyzing the contributions and role of black Americans.

 GOODWIN

Physician CHARLES RICHARD DREW is known for establishing the first major blood bank. During World War 2, Dr. Drew worked with the American Red Cross to create large-scale blood banks that are credited with saving the lives of thousands of Allied forces.

 GOODWIN

MACON BOLLING ALLEN is believed to be both the first African American licensed to practice law and to hold a judicial position in the United States. Allen passed the bar exam in Maine in 1844 and became a Massachusetts Justice of the Peace in 1848.

 GOODWIN

JACKIE ROBINSON is the only player to have their number retired across all of Major League Baseball. The first African American to play major league baseball, Robinson's number 42 was retired 50 years following his historic entry into the sport (April 15, 1947).

 GOODWIN

SHONDA RHIMES was the first black woman to create and to executive produce a Top 10 Network show. Rhimes is the brains behind the popular Grey's Anatomy, Scandal and How to Get Away with Murder.

 GOODWIN

QUINCY JONES is the most nominated artist in Grammy history. Over the course of his career, Jones has received 79 nominations and 27 awards. He is the founder of the Institute for Black American Music.

 GOODWIN

Black History Month 2019 - LinkedIn Posts

CARTER G. WOODSON is known as the “Father of Black History” and is the creator of Black History Month. Woodson authored numerous scholarly books on the positive contributions of black Americans to the development of America, and also published many magazine articles analyzing the contributions and role of black Americans.

Physician CHARLES RICHARD DREW is known for establishing the first major blood bank. During World War 2, Dr. Drew worked with the American Red Cross to create large-scale blood banks that are credited with saving the lives of thousands of Allied forces.

MACON BOLLING ALLEN is believed to be both the first African American licensed to practice law and to hold a judicial position in the United States. Allen passed the bar exam in Maine in 1844 and became a Massachusetts Justice of the Peace in 1848.

JACKIE ROBINSON is the only player to have their number retired across all of Major League Baseball. The first African American to play major league baseball, Robinson’s number 42 was retired 50 years following his historic entry into the sport (April 15, 1947).

QUINCY JONES is the most nominated artist in Grammy history. Over the course of his career, Jones has received 79 nominations and 27 awards. He is the founder of the Institute for Black American Music.

SHONDA RHIMES was the first black woman to create and to executive produce a Top 10 Network show. Rhimes is the brains behind the popular Grey’s Anatomy, Scandal and How to Get Away with Murder.

